About Nashville

HealthTrust is headquartered in Nashville, Tennessee. Located on the Cumberland River in the north-central part of the state, Nashville is the capital city of Tennessee and the 13-county metropolitan Nashville area is home to nearly 2 million people. Nicknamed Music City USA, Nashville is well-known for music and entertainment, but the city is also a thriving center for healthcare. HCA, one of the nation's first hospital companies, was founded in Nashville in 1968. For more information, visit Nashville.gov.

- Known as the "Athens of the South" because of the many colleges and universities located in and around the city, including Vanderbilt, Belmont, Fisk University, Middle Tennessee State University and many more.
- Subtropical climate with generally cool to moderate winters and hot, humid summers.
- Snowfall does occur in Nashville, but is usually not heavy.
- Home to the Tennessee Titans NFL football team and the Nashville Predators NHL hockey team.
